Topeka, Kas., Aug. 30.—The Senta Fo offices in this city were notified to-day that the big icehouse of the company at Lajunta. Colo., was burned to the ground at an early hour this morning. The house had a capacity of 6,000 tons. It is supposed that the building was set on fire by tramps, whether intentionally or by accident is not known. The property represented a cost of $10,000, but the company will not lose, as it was followed just twenty-four hours after the burning of the Santa Fe Stock Yards at Lajunta. The yards were set on fire by tramps and the company sistained a loss of $2,000.

Priests of St. Louis Hold a Meeting and Discuss Arrangements-Archiepiscopal Residence to Be Renovated.

At a meeting yesterday afternoon in eminary, in Russell avenue and Twelfth street. It was lighted to-morrow night, decided, as a further testimonial to the returning Archbishop, to renovate his residence on Lindell boulevard. There was an inclination on the part of many of the priests to honor the Archbishop with a public reception or other form of public celebration, but this idea was abandoned because of the Archbishop's wellknown antipathy to being the center of a public event. It was related that one of the reasons for his trip to Rome at this time was his anxiety to avoid a public celebration in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ascension to the bishopric. and it was thought that anything like a public reception to him on his return from Rome would be distasteful to him. It was therefore decided that a banquet, given by the clergy and attended by them, and the hould be the extent of the formal welcome. The meeting was presided over by Father Coyle of the Cathedral, and Pather Tan-rath, Chancellor of the Diocese, acted as secretary. Mgr. Muchlsiepen was in attendance.

Archbishop Kain departed for Rome late last April, his visit being for the double purpose of paying a jubilee visit to the Pope and escaping any attempt to celebrate his own silver jubilee, the twenty-lifth year of his service as a Bishop ending on June 21. He expects to sail on his return trip September 16.
